TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

This is to state that I have had the pleasure of working with Maneck Gilder for a little over a year. The project was in an old building which had many structural problems, significantly limiting what could be done. Having said that, Mr. Gilder worked tirelessly and has done an incredible job. He has painstakingly looked at every detail and has more than lived up to my expectation. He was a pleasure to work with and I would have absolutely no reservations in recommending him highly to anyone.
